Sponsored by

VERMONT CONSORTIUM for ADOPTION & GUARDIANSHIP

This Month's Topic: Learn about the Identity Learning Resources Now Available to Adoptive Families & Professionals in Vermont

Join us on November 19th from 12-1pm

VT Consortium for Adoption & Guardianship has partnered with Identity Learning for the year to offer even more free resources for adoptive families in Vermont. These online resources, including community groups, webinars, guidebooks, articles, videos, lunch & learns, trainings, & more are open to all Vermont Adoptive/Guardianship/Kinship/Foster Families and the professionals that support them.

Identity Learning was created by Isaac Etter, a transracial adoptee who faced the complexities of adoption & identity firsthand. They strive to ensure adoptive families thrive by celebrating each child's full identity by equipping families with innovative tools, compassionate guidance, and a deeper understanding of adoptee experiences.

Staff from Identity Learning will facilitate this Lunch & Learn to walk us through the process of signing up and accessing these resources, and will be available to answer any questions that we have. Please join us to find out about this amazing resource!

Let's share ideas with each other in a relaxed setting. Bring your lunch, share your thoughts, and ask questions.

Open to adoptive, guardianship, kinship, & foster caregivers, adopted individuals, and the professionals that support them.

While this series is free pre-registration is required.
